Manchester Neurodevelopmental Pharmacovigilance Research Group, University of Manchester

First published: 31/01/2022

Last updated: 20/08/2024

Institution | Educational Institution | Hospital/Clinic/Other health care facility

Institution identification

Institution ID

45476

Institution countries

United Kingdom (Northern Ireland)

Type of institution

Educational Institution

Hospital/Clinic/Other health care facility

ENCePP partner

No

Institution description

We are a research group based across the University of Manchester and Royal Manchester Children’s Hospital which is concerned with the investigation of the longer-term outcomes of children exposed to medications in utero. We work closely with Other pharmacovigilance groups on investigations into the potentially later emerging risks following exposure in the womb including child health,cognitive,social,motor,clinical disorders and behavioural outcomes.

Institution details

Experience with collecting data directly from individual patients or respondents:

Yes

Interest in carrying out research that is funded by pharmaceutical companies:

Yes

Contact

Rebecca Bromley rebecca.bromley@manchester.ac.uk

Main

rebecca.bromley@manchester.ac.uk