

Pharmacoepi center, University of Southern Denmark

First published: 22/04/2010

Last updated: 27/07/2023

Institution

Educational Institution

Institution identification

Institution ID

48328

Institution countries

 Denmark

Type of institution

Educational Institution

ENCePP partner

Yes

Institution description

The University of Southern Denmark Pharmcoepi Center is a pharmacoepidemiological research group embedded within the department of clinical pharmacology and pharmacy at the University of Southern Denmark. The group consists of app 18 persons,including senior epidemiologists,data managers,administrators and PhD students. Its research is focussed on applied,classical pharmacoepidemiology within a wide range of diseases and on method development within fields such as drug utilization research,self-controlled designs and screening of big data for unknown associations.The group has access to a wide range of nation-wide Danish data sources,including but not limited to the National Prescription Register,the National Patient Register and the Cancer Register. The scientific output is in the order of 70 peer-reviewed papers per year.

Institution details

Experience with collecting data directly from individual patients or respondents:

Yes

Interest in carrying out research that is funded by pharmaceutical companies:

Yes

Contact

Jesper Hallas jhallas@health.sdu.dk

jhallas@health.sdu.dk