Institution description

Yes

The Institute for Medicines and Medical Devices was established by the Law on Medicines, as an independent regulatory body of Montenegro in the field of medicines and medical devices and as a scientific research organization. The Institute is a legal successor and continues the work of the Agency for Medicines and Medical Devices, established by the Decision of the Government of Montenegro in 2008. Since its establishment, the Institute has continuously strived to implement the highest European and international standards and achieve quality, impartiality and transparency in its work. The Law on Medicines extends the field of activity to scientific research and thus continues its work as the Institute for Medicines and Medical Devices of Montenegro.
