Institution description

HeliosX is a global digital health platform serving five brands with a vertically-integrated healthcare network of clinicians and pharmacies capable of prescribing and delivering medicines across the world. It currently operates the brands: MedExpress (UK, Germany, Canada); Dermatica (UK, US); ZipHealth (US); RocketRx (US); and Levity (US). The major business lines include Weight Loss treatments including GLP1s, Sexual Health treatments, and skincare. In particular, MedExpress UK is the UK's largest provider of GLP1s, resulting in detailed patient journey data for millions of GLP1 users.
