Institution description

Kappa Santé is a CRO specialising in epidemiology, clinical research and public health interventions. Kappa Santé offers proven expertise both on a national and international level. Its diverse integrated know-how guarantees expert project management, from the concept through to publication. From its creation at the end of 2002, Kappa Santé has relied on the human factor in building a high-performance, multitalented, united team. Quality system development has also been one of our priorities in order to achieve the highest level of quality in our service offer, at each stage of the projects that we manage. Kappa Santé's activities focus on epidemiology and clinical research, constantly integrating applications arising from NICT.
