TEDDY European Network of Excellence for Paediatric Clinical Research (TEDDY)

First published: 15/03/2022

Last updated: 16/03/2022

Network

Network identification

Network ID

46271

Network countries

- Austria
- Cyprus
- Czechia
- France
- Germany
- Greece
- Italy
- Netherlands
- Poland
- Romania
- Spain
- Sweden

United Kingdom

Network website

https://www.teddynetwork.net/

ENCePP partner

Yes

Network description

TEDDY is an independent multidisciplinary,multinational Network,member of Enpr-EMA,that focuses its interest in: -Life science progress and derived methods and tools for innovative paediatric drugs -Actions to increase and disseminate knowledge on human developmental processes having impact on pharmacological and clinical tests -Paediatric medicines priority: how to reduce the off-label use and promote early paediatric medicines approval -Paediatric studies' methodologies including study design and statistical approach to small populations -Barriers in Europe to include children in research and actions to promote fundamental rights of the child -Actions to promote new tools to perform large pharmacoepidemiology and pharmacovigilance collections,data sharing and integration including real data utilization -Actions to promote the child/adolescent people's involvement in research,healthcare and health policy leading to an improved understanding and management of paediatric diseases

Network details

Network primary therapeutic area:

- Anaesthesia
- Disorders of the central nervous system
- Infectious diseases

- Neonatology
- Paediatrics
- Psychiatry

Network funding:

- - EU institutional research programme

Contact

Donato Bonifazi dbonifazi@teddynetwork.net

Main

dbonifazi@teddynetwork.net

Mariagrazia Felisi mariagraziafelisi@cvbf.net

Alternate

mariagraziafelisi@cvbf.net